Charity Golf Outing “Playing 4 Petway”

The first annual “Playing 4 Petway” charity golf outing will be held at the Rutgers Golf Course on October 8, in support of Sandra Petway, the first Black head coach at Rutgers University. Sandra, who started the women’s Track & Field program in the early 1970’s, was paralyzed from the neck down from a head-on accident in July 2021. She has limited mobility in her upper body and is presently in a motorized chair. The outing profits are intended to supplement the daily living expenses for her continued care. Support can be made in the way of golfers, sponsors, donors, or volunteer workers.
